

Hizb al-Asala(Authenticity Party), Egypt, 2011,Translated by Stephen Kirsch, Translated for the Islamic Political Party Platform Project, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, <http://kurzman.unc.edu/islamic-parties>. [6/19/13].

Al-Asalah Party is a political party of Islamic reference, which seeks to spread the values of justice, equality, and a return to preeminence in Egypt in various manners including being in agreement with the provisions of Islamic Sharia. Its leaders are a group of loved and loyal people of the country who organized for the uplifting and peace and security of the country.

The recent period has certainly been one of the most difficult times that Egypt has gone through politically, economically, socially, and in terms of security. After, glory be to God, this blessed revolution which removed the hindrance which harmed the country and humanity, for it remains necessary that we do the following:

1. Reestablish roles of Egypt as a political, economic, and military leader.
2. The realization of social justice between individuals of groups that achieve a peaceful life between sectarian or social classes.
3. To raise the level of health, and thought and culture, and the promotion of education, and to uphold the role of science and scientists.
4. Create a political climate in which a citizen can express his opinion and choose who he wants to represents him with absolute freedom.
5. To find the mechanisms to develop the use of state resources, and to use these resources to advance yearly levels, which lead to better standards of living and an increase in income levels.
6. Solidification of the principle of freedom, justice, and equality, and the respect for the Islamic identity of Egypt.
7. Put in place a strategy for the decrease in illiteracy, unemployment, and crime rate, and moral collapse.
8. To work for the independence of the judiciary power in all its levels, a separation of powers, and to provide the necessary measures to do so.
9. To return Egypt to its real place between an Islamic and Arab state, active participation in the issues of the nation, with the Palestinian issue at the forefront.
10. Recover stolen Egyptian money, and to try in court those who were corrupt, and who killed, and who plundered public money.
