

Partai Persatuan Nahdlatul Ummah Indonesia (PPNUI) (Indonesian Nahdlatul Communist Party), Indonesia, 2009,"Translated for the Islamic Political Party Platform Project, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, <http://kurzman.unc.edu/islamic-parties>. [5/22/14]."

Vision

The realization of an Indonesian society within the Republic of Indonesia (NKRI) which is fair and prosperous, civilized, democratic, equitable, progressive and independent under the ridla [approval] and maghfirah [forgiveness] of God, may He be glorified and exalted.

Mission

To build an society and nation that is faithful and fears Allah SWT, upholds noble character, personality, intelligence, progressiveness, independence, justice, prosperity and democracy, so as to help create world peace based on Islamic values, according to mabda' Ahlus Sunnah wal Jama'ah [the principles of the People of the Sunna and Community].

Party Background

PARTAI Persatuan Nahdlatul Ummah Indonesia was founded on the realization and conviction that the ideals of the independence struggle for Indonesia is to create a nation that is independent, united, sovereign, just, and prosperous. Partai Persatuan Nahdlatul Ummah Indonesia is the new form of Partai Nahdlatul Umat which won only five seats in the DPR in the 1999 elections. The party was founded by a number of core activists such as Ittihadul Mubalighin, Idham Chalid, Muhibbudin Waly, A.Mudhor, Usman Abidin, Muhammad Thohir, Achmad Sjatari, dan Syukron Ma'mun.